Emergency Action Plan

Complete page 1 for each dive site before the dive, and keep it with your oxygen kit. Use pages 2 and 3 to work through an emergency, step by step.

Dive site

Site name _____

Location
Address or GPS _____

Phone reception
Where it works _____

First aid equipment

Oxygen

Delivery type _____

Quantity _____

Location _____

First aid kit

Type _____

Location _____

AED

Type _____

Location _____

Emergency contacts

Local emergency number
911 in the US _____

DAN Emergency Hotline +1 (919) 684-9111

Nearest emergency room
Name, address, phone _____

_____

Nearest hyperbaric chamber
Name, address, phone _____

_____

© 2026 Gardner Underwater

During an emergency

- [ ] Call emergency services.

> "Hello, my name is ____. We have had a scuba diving incident. The diver is at ____. They are showing ____ (signs and symptoms). We are providing ____ (oxygen, first aid, CPR). My callback number is ____."

Stay on the phone with emergency services until responders arrive, and update them as things change.

- [ ] Send someone to guide responders to the scene.

Meeting point _____

- [ ] Call the DAN Emergency Hotline: +1 (919) 684-9111.

- [ ] Note the time of the incident.

Time

AM / PM _____

- [ ] Note the injured diver's details.

Name _____

Sex

M / F _____

Emergency contact name _____

Emergency contact phone _____

- [ ] Note signs and symptoms.

© 2026 Gardner Underwater

☐ Note how signs and symptoms change, with times.

☐ Note the dive profile, as far as you know it.

Maximum depth
ft _____

Dive time _____

Ascent rate
per minute _____

Decompression stops? _____

Gas
Air, nitrox, trimix _____

Open circuit or rebreather _____

Dives in previous 48 hours _____

☐ Secure the diver's equipment, if you can.
Do not change anything: leave valves, settings and gas as they are.

☐ Note assessments and care given, with times.

☐ Hand all information to responders on scene.

☐ Turn the scene over to the responsible authority when appropriate.

Handed over to _____

Time
AM / PM _____

Additional notes

© 2026 Gardner Underwater